NO OPPOSITION TO HIM AS CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS FROM THE IVTH DISTRICT.

Phillipsburg, N. J., Aug. 15.—The Republicans of the IVth Congress District, which is composed of Warren, Hunterdon, Sussex and Morris counties, met in convention here to-day to name a candidate for Congress. The convention was called to order at 11 o'clock, and at noon it adjourned till 1:30 p. m.

people of the district and of New-Jersey upon the election of Mahlon Pitney to Congress in 1894: indersing the principles of the Republican party as announced by the National Convention in St. Louis; demanding "an honest deliar and a chance for every man to earn it"; favoring such a revision of the tariff as will provide Congressman Pitney.

Upon reassembling, the convention renominated Mr. Pitney, there being no opposition.

JERSEY POPULISTS FOR FUSION.

THEY GIVE THE STATE COMMITTEE POWER. TO NAME PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS AND MAKE A DEAL WITH SHAVER DEMOCRATS.

The State Convention of the People's Party of New-Jersey, to elect Presidential electors, met at No. 844 Broad-st., Newark, yesterday. The place of the convention was unknown to most of the delegates, and had to be hunted up even by the Newark men. At noon, the hour of convening, about a score of delegates were in the room, and there were a few late arrivals. Among those resent was Thomas Buchanan, who ran for Congress in the Vith New-Jersey District in 1894.

The convention was called to order by Thomas H. Proctor, of Vineland, chairman of the State Mr. Proctor remarked that the New-Jersey Populists had come together after four years' agitation and education, having as their ies one of the great political parties, and still finding arrayed against them the same influences of the moneyed classes, the money-lenders, the monopolists and the "suborned press of the State." After prayer by William B. Ellis, of great field of limit men, coming to the van as he Trenton, I. V. Pierson, of Glen Ridge, was chosen entered the homestretch. secretary, and committees were appointed. A recess for dinner was then taken. At the afternoon session L. F. Fuller, of Vineland, was elected permanent chairman and I. V. Pierson secretary.

It was soon made evident that there were two opposing forces in the convention, one for fusion on any terms with the silver Democrats and the other for acting independently. This came out when the question of choosing electors came up. A brief platform was presented and adopted, as

A resolution was offered that the naming of the ten Presidential electors be left to the Committee to be chosen, which body was to consist of three from each county. A substitute resolu- 4.582 tion was offered that the Convention proceed to choose the delegates. A warm debate ensued. The object of the first resolution was to leave the State Committee free to make a deal with the sliver Democrats. One delegate declared that the proper thing to do was for the Demos crats of the State to indorse the Populist elec-tors. Those in favor of the resolution affirmed their loyalty to Waison and based their argu-ment on the ground of policy. The resolution prevailed, 16 to 10.

Chairman Fuller was unanimously elected State chairman, and the delegates presented the names of men for members of the State Committee. Only a few counties were represented in the Convention, and there was much disappointment expressed at the extreme slimness of the attendance.

Fine weather, a big crowd of spectators, a record-breaking list of entries, an un usual number of contestants and a long programme were the factors which combined to give the tour nament such a flattering outcome. While a few triffing hitches occurred at the outset, the sixteen numbers on the card, with their numerous prelim inary trial heats, were run off in excellent time Resolutions were adopted congratulating the The absence of field contests from the programme was a marked feature. To every one save members of the regiment four of the contests were closed. So spirited was the rivalry shown in these contests that members of Company A protested against William B. Brister and William A. ARRESTED IN NEWARK FOR AN ALLEGED AS SAULT ON A WOMAN.

August C. Forster, who said he was a private tective, and had a certificate from Police Headquarters in New-York, was arrested in Newark and sent to jail yesterday, after having been mobbed by an excited crowd in Springfield-ave. near Broome-st. On Friday Forster, with another man, went to the house of August Kruger, No. 49. house temporarily, and Forster was alone with Mary hat Forster insulted her and threatened her with arrest, and then grabbed her by the throat and assaulted her. When Kruger returned the woman aformed him of what had happened. Forster had left the house. Yesterday Kruger and the woman met the alleged detective in the street and selzed him. The outery attracted a crowd of Germans and Poles, and, as soon as the nature of the charke was made known, there were cries of "Hang him" and "String him up!" A constable took Forster before a Justice of the Peace, who committed him to full for trial.

A PARMER'S EXTRAORDINARY VISION.

THE DECLARES THAT HE SAW THE VIRGIN MARY

WHILE PISHING IN THE DELAWARE. Belvidere, Aug. 15, The upper section of Warren County is exercised over an apparition that Moses Depue, a farmer of Pahaquary township, is sure that he saw a few days and. Depue is a strict Methodist, and this naturally adds additional credit to his statement.

The farmer's story is to the effect that he ishing in the Delaware River, when he heard a sort of sweeping noise, as though the wind was blowing among tall trees, and on looking up the Virgin Mary. A huge white cloud arose from the stream, and, as it came up out of the water apparently, assumed the form of a cross. After rushing along for twenty or thirty feel in the air. the cloud parted and in the centre was the form of a beautiful woman. Her face was radiant with light, and her dark brown hair fell in rich waves over her shoulders. The figure was robed in white, the garment seeming to fall to her feet. The cloud wandered slowly over the stream, and as it approached the New-Jersey side it became dazzl proached the New-Jersey side it became dazzling. Depue says that he was almost blinded. He fell down in the bottom of his boat and quickly clasped his hands over his eyes to protect them. When he recovered the vision had disappeared.

Depue, when he returned to his home, made known what he had seen to his family and neighbors. He was so much excited that his friends had to call a physician to quiet him. He is not a drinking man, and as the story is being retold, there are many who believe that he did see something out of the ordinary.

It is now probable that no work will be do It is now probable that no work will be done on the proposed new high school building before spring. President Gay, of the Board of Education, says there are a number of things to make progress slow. First, clear title to the site must be obtained, as three tracts of land will have to be condemned, owing to the inability to find an heir. After this is done, it will probably require some time to dispose of the buildings now on the site, and cause their removal. 'It may be,' said a member of the Board, 'that the Board will decide to give the contract to prepare plans and specifications and supervise the construction to some individual or firm, but there would be probably an outery in such a case. The custom in many places when a fine public building is to be erected is to call for competitive plans and select those which seem to be best suited to conditions. In this way it is possible to obtain the benefit of many ideas that would not suggest themselves to any one man, no matter how high up in the profession he might be. Frequently architects of very modest reputation furnish points that are invaluable. After the plans and specifications have been decided on, it will require vecks and perhaps months before the bids are obtained, the contract let, and the work actually begun.

THE ORANGES.

GUILD.

SPEND A DAY ON THE WATER-A GIFT TO THE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

The excursion that was given to the sick and poor children of the Oranges on Wednesday by the Orange branch of the Guild of St. Barnabas was a noteworthy affair. There were about five hundred of the beneficiaries, and they had been selected by the different pastors of the Oranges as the most deserving in their flocks. A special train was run on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad to Hoboken, where the party embarked on the steamer John Lenox, which steamed down through the Narrows to the outer harbor, and nce across the Bar into the open Atlantic. sea was as smooth as a mill pond, and after cruising around until 6 p. m. the party took the train for home. Each person on the excursion received a comfortable hot meal at noon, and there was an abundant supply of milk for the bables. Two phy sicians, six nurses from the hospital and a number of volunteer helpers cared for all the wants of the party. Those in charge of the affair were Miss Margaret H. Pierson, Mrs. William H. Williams. Alice W. Thompson, Miss Bertha Gerhard. Mes Eleanor Wicks, Miss Cora Hunt, Miss Myra Crane, the Rev. Alexander Mann, Arthur C. Zim mermann and George J. Bayles. With the near approach to completion of the new consumptive pavilion of the Orange Memorial Hospital, which has been built at his own expense by Frederick M. Shepard, of East Orange, in membry of his son who died last fall, a further munificent has been made. The entire furnishing of the pavilion has been assumed by Mr. Shepard's children, Frederick M. Shepard, jr., Mrs. Alfred Boo and John H. Shepard. The pavilion will be fur- oak and maliogany, nished by them in the best manner and at a coof about $1,000.
